

West Michigan Mechanical Contractors Elect Officers

Coopersville, MI, June 19, 2009 – The West Michigan Mechanical Contractors Association (WMMCA) elected Rick Ekkens, President of B&V Mechanical, as President of the WMMCA for a 3 year term. Ekkens has served on the WMMCA's Executive Board as Treasurer, Executive Board Director and on the WMMCA's JATC (Journeyman Apprentice Training Committee). Ekkens has been the President of B&V since January 2005. He has worked in the industry for over 30 years. Ekkens commented, "Serving as the WMMCA President should be a challenging experience."

Rick Ekkens

Tom VanderHyde, President of Rite-Way Plumbing & Heating, was elected to serve on the Executive Board for a 3 year term. VanderHyde has served as the WMMCA President for 9 years, participated in numerous committees throughout his 40 year career.

Other members of the WMMCA Executive Board are Tom Jasper, President of Andy J. Egan Co. Inc of Grand Rapids, Brett Lascko Owner of Lascko Plumbing and Mechanical of Muskegon and Jodi VandenBerg, President of Advantage Mechanical ~ Refrigeration and Aire Serv of West Michigan.

The WMMCA was established to represent and service West Michigan Mechanical Contractors. Association members dedicate themselves to quality, dependability, safety, and education as they serve as the primary liaison for labor relations and multi-employer collective bargaining with the West Michigan Plumbers, Fitters, and Service Trades.

Contact Cindy Morse, Executive Director of the West Michigan Mechanical Contractors Association at 616-735-9658 with questions or comments.